All About Title I

➤ What is the purpose of this meeting?

Federal guidelines require Title I schools to hold an Annual Parent Meeting About the Benefits of the Title I Schoolwide Program to inform parents of Title I requirements and discuss their rights to be involved in the Title I Schoolwide Program.

Banyan Elementary is a Title I School.

All About Title I (Cont'd.)

- Title I is the largest federally funded education program under the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA)
 - It is designed to provide students with additional help in Reading, Language Arts, Mathematics, Science and Social Studies.
 - The main objective is to support schools and districts to ensure that high quality education is equitable for all students.
 - The Title I Schoolwide Program is committed to helping schools close the achievement gap between disadvantaged and minority students and their peers.
 - To learn more, please visit <http://title1.dadeschools.net>. This website is designed to provide visitors with information relevant to Title I and to offer a clear understanding of the overall program.

All About Title I (Cont'd.)

➤ How does the ESSA and the Title I Parent and Family Engagement requirements help parents and families?

- The school district and all Title I schools must allocate a portion of their Title I budget towards programs, activities, and procedures for parent and family engagement.
- The school district and all Title I schools must develop with parents and families a written Title I Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP). This PFEP must be distributed to all stakeholders.
- All Title I schools are required to collaborate with parents and families in the development of the School Improvement Process (SIP) and School-Parent Compact.

Title I District-level Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP)

- The District-level PFEP is a blueprint of how the District Local Educational Agency (LEA) and Title I schools will work together with parents and families to establish expectations for family engagement and explore strategies to improve student academic achievement.
- The District-level PFEP describes how the District will:
 - Provide coordination, technical assistance, and other support necessary to assist schools in planning and implementing effective parent and family engagement activities; and
 - Conduct, with meaningful involvement of parents and families, an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of the parent and family engagement plan towards improving the academic quality of all schools served under Title I, Part A.

Title I School-level Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP)

- The Title I School-level PFEP is a blueprint of how Banyan Elementary School will work together with parents, family members, and the community to establish expectations for family engagement and to explore strategies to improve student academic achievement.

Title I School-level Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP) (Cont'd.)

➤ Our Title I School-level PFEP describes how our school will:

- Convene an annual meeting to inform parents and family members of their rights to be involved in the Title I program: EESAC, PTA, send meeting and webinar notifications to share Title 1 information and, add updated documents to the school website.
- Offer meetings at flexible times to maximize participation;
- Provide parents and family members with timely information about Title I programs...send home Title 1 notification letter, monthly calendar, flyers and class dojo/messenger

Title I School-level Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP) (Cont'd.)

Involve parents and families in the process of planning, reviewing, and improving documents required by the Title I Program and schoolwide activities in an organized and ongoing timely manner;

Assist parents and families in understanding academic content standards, assessments, and how to monitor and improve the academic achievement of their children; and

- .Interim Progress Reports
- .Report Cards
- .Parent Conferences
- .Academic Assessment Parent Night
- .Social Media
- .Student/Parent Monthly Calendars

- Provide training to assist parents and families of students enrolled in schools implementing the Title I Schoolwide Program to improve academic achievement.
 - Academic Assessments Parent Night
 - Parent Workshops

Title I School-Parent Compact

- Each Title I school must have a School-Parent Compact that is developed jointly by parents and school personnel.
- The compact sets out the responsibilities of the students, parents, and school staff in striving to raise student academic achievement.
- The compact will be discussed and amended during parent-teacher conferences and documented in a teacher communication log (K-5 only).

The School-Parent Compact can be found at <http://banyanelementary.net>

Parents, Families and Schools Working Together

➤ What does school and parent collaboration look like?

- Our school offers activities, training sessions, workshops, and parent/teacher conferences at flexible meeting times... meetings and Parent workshops will be held throughout the year (official notices will be sent to parents) and a Parent Resource Center/Area;
- School and parent partnerships are built within advisory councils such as the Educational Excellence School Advisory Council (EESAC), the Title I District Advisory Council (DAC), and the Central Region Parent Advisory Council (PAC); and
- Title I DAC and Region PAC members are representatives of parents who consult with the District Title I DAC on the planning and implementation of the Title I Schoolwide Program.

Parents, Families and Schools Working Together (Cont'd.)

- The school conducts elections for Title I DAC/PAC Representatives.

A copy of the completed form (FM-6996) is found in the Parent Resource Center

School Achievement and Performance Data (Cont'd.)

➤ How do we use our school achievement data?

- Our school uses data to align the curriculum to State and District academic standards.
- Our instructional practices are adjusted based on the findings of the assessment data.
- For further details about our school achievement data, we invite you to attend the EESAC meetings throughout the school year.

Parent's Right-to-Know

- Parents have the right to request and receive timely information regarding the professional qualifications of their child's teachers and paraprofessionals.
- Parents must be notified if their child is assigned to, or taught by, a teacher who does not meet state certification requirements for the grade level or subject area for four (4) or more consecutive weeks.
- Parents should be provided information regarding the level of academic achievement of their child on State required academic assessments.
- To the extent that it is feasible, information must be in a language that parents can understand.

School-level Parent and Family Engagement Survey

- Please complete the 2024-2025 Title I School-level Parent and Family Engagement Survey distributed today.
- The results of this survey will be utilized to help in the development of the School-level Title I Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP), and to plan future parent and family engagement activities, events, and workshops at Banyan Elementary School.

Consultation and Complaint Procedures

- A student, parent or employee, who in good faith believes that the District has violated federal and state law pertaining to the delivery of Title I services and programs, may take action to resolve these allegations.
- More information can be found in the Parent and Family Engagement Section of the 2024-2025 Title I Procedures Manual, pages 14-15.
